

External Sites of Research or External Collaborators: What Does the IRB Application Need?

Start Here

Is your collaborative research with an institution/organization/school/business?
OR
Does your research plan to have a Non-Purdue collaborator as key personnel?

Research at institution/organization/school/business (site)

Non-Purdue collaborator as Key Personnel

What is the role of the external site?
1. Provides assistance with recruitment only;
2. Members of the site are potential study participants;
3. Members of the site will participate in the data collection.

Is the collaborator working on behalf of another institution as an employee of another organization (e.g. hospital, another university)?

1

2

3

Members of the site are Key Personnel who collect or analyze data

Yes

No

The site provides assistance with recruitment only

Members of the site are potential participants

Does their institution/site have an IRB?

Is the site within the US?

Yes

No

Yes

No

Letter of Collaboration authored and signed by the site.

Letter of Collaboration and International Context

Request for Deferral/Reliance

Individual Investigator Agreement (IIA) and documentation of training.